From there the party, which will be composed of five experienced mushers, besides the two policemen, will go down the river and will skirt the shores of the Arctic until they reach Herschell Island or wherever the fleet is frozen in. There the mail will be distributed and the medicine delivered. The officers will spend to days amounts the whalers seeing that law and order is preserved and that no whisky is being given to the Eskimos or that they are being debauched in any way. The officers will also collect duty from the American whalers for the Canadian Government.

Regina, Saskatchewan Dec 2.—To carry reals and medicine to the eleven American whaling ships which are frozen in for the winter at Herschell Island, far beyond the ordinary habitation of man, is the Royal Northwest Mounted Police. Sergenti Phizgerald and Constable Walker of this city have started. The round trip from here to Herschell Island will include a distance of 6000 miles and the men will not get back until heat summer.

The trip is all the more hazardeus because it is made in the depth of an Arctic winter. Many experienced inushers and northern travelers do not believe that it is possible to accomplish it has the real adventurous man who have been selected to get it into execution are not the least dainted by the pessimistic opinions. It is said another expedition will be fitted up during the end of February and will start for Herschell Island mit before the winter in transic up.

The men making the present trip will not take anything except personal belongings on the first part of the Journey, but will be outfitted at Dawson City from which place they will delve into the unexplored wilds of the Arctic. The long trip over the mountains in the darkness of the Arctic winter will be commenced about December 16, and Fort McPherson.

Three other banks of Stoux City employ almost an even number of men and women, but the tendency is to put the women in places of trust, where great care and painstaking work are desired.

Women are fast becoming bank officials in the Northwest, not only retiring men from clerkship, but from the offices of cashler, assistant cashier and even vice president, while women tellers are numerous. Over seventy-five bank officials in lows are women; over forty-five in Nebraska and a large number in South Dakota.

DISEASES THE BLOOD POLLUTES THE BODY-EATS OUT THE LIF

So powerful is the virus of Contagious Blood Poison that it will disease the entire blood supply of the strongest, healthiest person, and the hideous symptoms which follow degrade and pollute the body from head to foot. Unless the poison is driven from the blood it preys on the internal members and tissues and ears out the very life of those so unfortunate as to contract the vile disorder.

Contagious Blood Poison is the most treacherous of all diseases. It has its victims in its grasp almost before they realize the blood is diseased; because its first symptom, which is a little sore or ulcer, is so insignificant that it does not usually excite suspicion. When this virus is in the blood the mouth and throat ulcerate, copper colored spots appear, a red rash breaks out, the hair comes out, the glands in the groin swell, and ulcerating sores often form on the limbs, hands or face. But this is not all; if the poison is allowed to remain it works down and affects the bones, causing necrosis or decay, attacks the nerves, and causes tumors to form on the brain, and-insanity or death is the result.

Persons who are afflicted with Contagions Blood Poison experience the degradation and humiliation which accompany the vile disorder; they feel that their very presence is contaminating to others. So highly contagious is the disease that it is often contracted by innocent persons through a friendly handshake or by using the toilet articles of one afflicted, or is transmitted by the laws of heredity to offspring, whose bodies become diseased and lives blighted by this destructive poison.

I contracted Contagious Blood Poison from using a towel that had been used by some one afflicted with the treable. I had every symptom of the vile disease, my hair came out, I had copper colored spots on my body, my mouth and throat were ulcerated and great series would come on my body and I could not get them to heal. I tried everything I heard of but the disease get weres until I heard of S. S., which I commenced. I come began to improve and continued the treatment until I was entirely well. This was some time age and I have never seen the slightest sign of the disease times.

It will not do to tamper with a disease that is so powerful as Contagious Blood Poison, for every day it remains in the blood it is progressing toward a dangerous stage and may in the end get beyond the reach of any treatment. Mercury and Potash are often given to cure the trouble, but cannot conquer the mighty poison. These minerals may, for a while, drive the symptoms away and shut the disease up in the system, but when the treatment is left off the trouble returns and makes more rapid headway because of the disastrous effects of these strong medicines on the system. The continued use of Mercury and Potash destroys ti delicate lining of the stomach, causing chronic Dyspepsia, and so injuriously affects the bowels that the patient is often left a physical wreck.

In S. S. S. nature has provided a safe and certain cure for Contagious Blood Poison.

This great remedy is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, selected for their purifying and healing effects on the blood. S. S. S. cures the disease by going down into the blood and forcing out every particle of the virus. Through the blood it goes to every nook and corner and removes the poison, and at the same time re-stores the healthful qualities of the blood. S. S. S. does not cover up the disease in any way, and when the blood has been purified with this great remedy no trace of the poison is left to hand down to posterity or break out in future years. When S. S. S. has made the cure it is complete and permanent. It is the only safe and reliable treatment for this hateful and dangerous trouble, and its record of fifty years of cures is proof of this fact. We offer a reward of $1,000 for proof that S. S. S. contains a particle of mineral in any form.
